From: Police On Target
To: jnieland@bakersfieldpd.us
Subject: Supreme Court Rules on Cell Tower Location Data
Date: Friday, June 22, 2018 12:47:32 PM

Click to view online

Friday, June 22, 2018

SCOTUS: Tracking Cell Tower Location Data Requires a Warrant

In a 5-4 vote, the United States Supreme Court ruled on Friday that police must first obtain a search warrant before examining location data — cell tower records that can show a person's movement for long periods of time — stored on a subject's mobile phone.

Amazon Employees Join ACLU, Investors in Protest of Amazon's Sale of Tech to Police

A group of Amazon employees have asked company executives to discontinue its sale of the company's Rekognition facial recognition software to law enforcement agencies.

Officer Wounded in Texas High School Shooting Heads Home

Officer John Barnes — who along with Officer Gary Forward rushed to end the threat of an active shooter at Santa Fe High School in May — walked out of a Houston-area hospital on Wednesday.

Video: Actor Dean Cain Sworn in as Idaho Reserve Deputy

Actor Dean Cain — whose acting roles include Superman — was recently sworn in as a reserve officer with the Saint Anthony Police Department in Idaho.

German Police Set Up Fake Traffic Collision to Test Citizen Response

Police in Germany wanted to discover how many people would stop to help victims of a roadside crash, so they set up a fake accident scene complete with two victims made to appear to be badly injured.

POLICE HOW-TO

Special Report: Keeping Schools Safe

How To Respond to an Emotionally Disturbed Person

Cloud Storage: Why your department should make the switch

Kissimmee Police Department: Intelligence-Led Policing Drives Progress & Prosperity

SUBSCRIPTION SERVICES

Subscribe

Renew

Make subscription payment

Address changes

Back issues

MORE

Classifieds/Jobs

FBI, DEA, Local California Agencies, Take Down Major Meth Ring

An eight-month operation by the Fresno County Sheriff's Office, Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has resulted in the seizure of large quantities of methamphetamine and marijuana.

Texas City Settles "Pool Party Incident" Lawsuit

The City of McKinney (TX) announced that it has settled a lawsuit filed on behalf of Dajerria Becton, the bikini-clad teenager who was seen on a viral video being taken to the ground by McKinney Police Officer Eric Casebolt.

DNA Left on Abandoned Bike Leads to Arrest in Florida Murder Case

Police in Miami Gardens (FL) say that DNA collected from a bicycle abandoned at a murder scene in March led to the arrest of 23-year-old David Jones.

Squad Car Collides with Bus in England, Injuring 10

Four people were taken to hospital and six more received minor injuries when a police car answering an emergency call collided with a bus.

Living with PTSD: Your Life Means Something

There will be times that you are going to want to give up — you may even want to try to take your own life. Don't.

ADVERTISE WITH US

Leslie Pfeiffer
p 480.367.1101
f 480.367.1102
leslie.pfeiffer@policemag.com

Susan Freel
p 920.397.7570
f 480.302.7867
susan.freel@policemag.com

POLICE is sending you this e-newsletter to keep you better informed as to the news, products and information affecting your industry.

You are currently subscribed as jnieland@bakersfieldpd.us
To update your information or subscribe to more Bobit eNewsletters, Click Here
To unsubscribe from this newsletter, please follow this link: Unsubscribe

For additional information, please contact POLICE, Bobit Business Media, 3520 Challenger Street, Torrance CA 90503, privacy@bobit.com (310) 533-2577

View our Privacy Policy